

It's never been more important to vote local and elect Democratic candidates up and down the ballot on November 7th.

While the reckless Republican policies coming out of Washington often dominate the headlines, we can't let our guard down when it comes to local elections.

Real, lasting change starts at the local level. Our Democratic judicial candidates will fight each and every day to protect the rights of families, workers, seniors and vulnerable communities across Pennsylvania.

Please join me in supporting them as we work to move the Commonwealth forward.
