Why Register and Vote Democratic?

Democrats are bound together by deep principles that are embedded in our core set of values - from the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights and the U.S. Constitution. We believe that in this great and prosperous country, certain truths are as self-evident as those put forth over two hundred years ago...

"The very first paragraph of the Scripture that informs the three Abrahamic traditions tells us: The Divine Spirit breathed over the waters of chaos and brought forth a new creation.

Encouraged by this promise that a new creation can come from chaos, let us pray:

O Divine Spirit! During the weeks and months ahead, stir our hearts and minds that we might fight for a vision that is worthy of you and your call to honor the dignity of all of your creation.

A vision of who we are as a people, grounded in community and care for all, especially the most marginalized.

A vision that cares for our earth and heals the planet.

A vision that ends structural racism, bigotry and sexism so rife now in our nation and in our history.

A vision that ensures hungry people are fed, children are nourished, immigrants are welcomed.

O Spirit, breathe in us and our leaders a new resolve – that committed to this new American promise, we will work together to build a national community grounded in healing, fearlessly based on truth, and living out of a sense of shared responsibility.

In the name of all that is holy, O Spirit, bring out of this time of global and national chaos a new creation, a new community that can, with your help, realize this new promise that we affirm tonight; and so, with profound hope, let we the people say: Amen!"

Sister Simone Campbell's invocation at the Democratic National Convention, August 20, 2020. The three Abrahamic traditions refer to Judaism, Christianity and Islam.

SUSAN WILD (D)

Representative: 7th District (3rd Term)

Susan Ellis Wild was born at Wiesbaden Air Force Base, West Germany, while her father, who was in the Air Force, was stationed there. She volunteered on Jimmy Carter's 1976 presidential campaign, and shortly thereafter graduated from American University and earned her law degree at the George Washington University Law School. She became a partner at the law firm Gross McGinley in 1999. She has lived in France, California, and New Mexico, and has lived in the Lehigh Valley for more than 30 years. Her two adult children were born and raised in the Lehigh Valley. Rep. Wild built a successful legal practice and became the first woman to be appointed as Allentown City Solicitor.

MATT CARTWRIGHT (D)

Representative: 8th District (6th Term)

Matt Cartwright was born in Erie, PA. He graduated from Upper Canada College in Toronto in 1979 and went on to earn a BA in History from Hamilton College in Clinton, NY. He then attended the London School of Economics. He received his law degree in 1986 from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, where he was Editor of the University of Pennsylvania Law Review for two years. While at the London School of Economics, he met his future wife, Marion Munley. After they were married, both joined the Munley family's law firm in Scranton. The couple has two sons.

JOHN FETTERMAN (D) Senator (1st Term)

John Fetterman grew up in York. He followed his father's footsteps to Albright College, where he played offensive tackle for the Lions. At 23, he joined Big Brothers / Big Sisters and threw himself into the program.

He went on to earn a master's in public policy from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government. He returned to Pennsylvania to start a GED program in the town of Braddock and focused on turning the town into a thriving and growing community. In 2005, he ran for mayor and won. He applied a hands-on approach from AmeriCorps and his service experience to take steps to rebuild his community, bringing creative urban policy solutions to Braddock. In 2019, he became the 34th Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania.

BOB CASEY (D) Senator (3rd Term)

Robert Patrick Casey Jr. was born in Scranton. He played basketball for and graduated from Scranton Preparatory School. He then graduated from the College of the Holy Cross and received a law degree from the Columbus School of Law at the Catholic University of America. Between college and law school, Casey served as a member of the Jesuit Volunteer Corps and spent a year teaching fifth grade and coaching basketball at the Gesu School in Philadelphia. He practiced law in Scranton from 1991 until 1996, served as Pennsylvania Auditor General from 1997 to 2005, and as Pennsylvania Treasurer from 2005 to 2007. Sen. Casey and his wife Terese have four daughters.

JOSH SHAPIRO (D) Pennsylvania Governor (1st Term)

Joshua David Shapiro was raised in Montgomery County. He studied political science at the University of Rochester and earned his law degree from Georgetown University. He was the first freshman elected as student body president of the University of Rochester.

He married Lori Ferrara in 1997 and they have four children. Shapiro served in the PA House of Representatives for the 153rd district from 2004 to 2012, and on the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners from 2012 to 2017. He was elected as PA Attorney General in 2016 and re-elected in 2020.

AUSTIN DAVIS (D) Pennsylvania Lieutenant Governor (1st Term)

Austin Davis grew up in McKeesport, the son of a hairdresser and a bus driver. From an early age, he wanted to dedicate himself to public service. In high school he served as chairman of the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council.

Davis is a first-generation college graduate in his family, and earned a degree in political science from the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg. He married Blayre Holmes in 2017.

In 2018, he was elected to the PA House of Representatives for the 35th district. He is Pennsylvania's first African American lieutenant governor.

MAUREEN MADDEN (D) Pennsylvania House of Representatives - District 115 (4th Term)

Maureen Madden earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Marymount Manhattan College and a master's degree in communication from Marywood University.

Before her election to represent the 115th Legislative District, Madden was an educator at East Stroudsburg University, where she saw the impact of the budget cuts placed on universities due to decreased state funding.

Her legislative priorities include increasing higher education funding by eliminating corporate tax breaks, reforming property taxes, and securing additional state funding for basic education so public schools are fairly funded.

TARAH PROBST (D) Pennsylvania House of Representatives - District 189 (1st Term)

Tarah Probst grew up in East Stroudsburg and has lived in Northeast Pennsylvania all her life. She earned a bachelor's degree from King's College and a law degree from Widener University School of Law.

She has lived in Stroudsburg with her family since 2010. She owned a restaurant in the town and has worked as a regional account coordinator for an addiction recovery center. In 2015, Probst was elected Mayor of Stroudsburg. She embarked on a program of business growth and increased media attention, bringing significant improvements to the borough and the region.

Local Government: A Guide

Listed in Alphabetical Order

■ Auditors

are elected to four- to six-year terms. They are responsible for reviewing the revenues and expenses of the townships.

■ Boroughs

are self-governing. The four boroughs in Monroe County (Mount Pocono, Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg and Delaware Water Gap) each has its own elected government consisting of a Council, a Mayor, and an appointed town manager or administrator. Borough councils in Monroe County each have 7 members with four-year overlapping terms.

■ Clerk of Courts

is elected to a four-year term; the office is responsible for preparing and maintaining court records for criminal cases, and carries out many of the same functions as the Prothonotary does for civil actions. In Monroe County one elected official acts as both the Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts.

■ Constables

in PA are local elected officials and serve six-year terms in service to the PA Magisterial courts. They are peace officers and assist in serving the Common Pleas Court when requested by the Sheriff.

■ Controller

has a four-year term, manages fiscal affairs of the County to ensure that finances are administered, recorded and reported in a legal and timely manner. Duties include payroll, review and processing of all county bills, and overseeing grants from state and federal sources.

■ Coroner

is a four-year elected position. The Coroner responds to scenes of death, interviews witnesses, examines the scene and removes the body from the scene. The office investigates certain types of deaths, especially when sudden, violent, unexplained or suspicious, to determine the cause and manner of death.

■ County Government

is administered by a board of three Commissioners with four-year terms. The Commissioners act in legislative and executive capacities. Their role is to administer human service programs, conduct land use planning, maintain county property, and oversee the County Correctional Facility, the Housing Authority, Vector Control, zoning and conservation.

■ District Attorney

serves as chief law enforcement officer for the County. This four-year elected position is responsible for prosecuting crimes and providing investigations for local police.

■ Judge of Election

holds a four-year term, specifically elected for the purpose of working the elections. The Judge of Election has direct control of the polling site and is assisted by inspectors, clerks, machine operators and a Constable. Each precinct has its own Judge of Election who is in charge of the polling place on Election Day.

■ Magisterial District Courts

have jurisdiction over civil claims where the disputed amount is less than $12,000, landlord/tenant disputes, Summary Offenses, and minor criminal matters. All Misdemeanor and Felony criminal cases are initially filed in the Magisterial District Courts. There are 9 Magisterial District judges in Monroe County, each elected to a 6-year term.

Local Government: A Guide

■ Monroe County Court of Common Pleas of the 43rd Judicial District

is a state trial court with jurisdiction in serious criminal and civil cases of more than $7,000. It hears appeals from lower (magistrate) courts and appeals of decisions of state and government agencies. The President Judge supervises magisterial justices and their administration. There are 7 judges, including the President Judge, elected to 10-year terms.

■ Prothonotary

is elected to a four-year term, maintains court records including liens, judgments and divorce actions as well as civil and equity files. This office collects filing fees, issues receipts, certifies court documents, and issues passports.

■ Public Defender

(Chief Public Defender) is appointed by the County Commissioners; the office represents individuals who are charged with state crimes and cannot afford an attorney. Services are paid for by the taxpayers of Monroe County, and eligibility for representation is based upon the gross income level of the applicant, applying the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

■ Recorder of Deeds

is a four-year elected position; the office acts as a collection agent for realty transfer tax for the State, municipalities and school districts. It funds the archiving and historical preservation of county land records.

■ Register of Wills

is a four-year elected position which provides various services such as the probate of decedent estates, collection of inheritance taxes and maintenance of records pertaining to estates. In Monroe County one elected official acts as both the Recorder of Deeds and Register of Wills.

■ School Districts

are four in number in Monroe County – Pleasant Valley, Pocono Mountain, East Stroudsburg, and Stroudsburg. Each district is administered by a School Board consisting of nine members elected to 4-year terms, with staggered terms every two years.

■ Sheriff

is a four-year elected position, provides law enforcement and security to County courts. The Sheriff also executes civil complaints, summons, evictions, protection from abuse orders, and criminal warrants.

■ Tax Collectors

serve a four-year term and, through municipal authority, collect all real estate taxes (County, municipal and school) for all properties within the boroughs and townships.

■ Townships

are usually the first stop for residents who seek information or action on their issues. First-class townships have five commissioners, three elected for terms of four years each, and two for terms of two years each. Second-class townships may have three or five supervisors and they are elected to six-year terms.

■ Township Supervisors

are responsible for health and safety of residents. Duties include zoning, planning and land use, land acquisition, police and fire protection, roads and bridges, snow removal, parks and recreation, storm water management, and libraries.

■ Treasurer

is elected to a four-year term and is responsible for receiving, receipting and disbursing County monies. This office also serves as State agent for providing dog, hunting and fishing licenses.

MCDC OFFICERS

...if by a "Liberal," they mean someone who looks ahead and not behind, someone who welcomes new ideas without rigid reactions, someone who cares about the welfare of the people - their health, their housing, their schools, their jobs, their civil rights, and their civil liberties - someone who believes that we can break through the stalemate and suspicions that grip us in our policies abroad, if that is what they mean by a "Liberal," then I'm proud to say that I'm a "Liberal." ~ John F. Kennedy

MONROE COUNTY
STATE COMMITTEE MEMBER

Paid for by Friends of Jacob Pride

A portrait of Congressman Matt Cartwright, a middle-aged man with short brown hair, wearing a dark suit, light blue shirt, and a patterned tie. He is smiling slightly and has a small American flag pin on his lapel. The background features an American flag on the left and a blue wall on the right. The entire image is framed by a dark blue border with faint circular patterns.

Thanks to the Monroe County Democratic Party for your hard work and commitment!
